SPLIT OVER UPPER SILESIAN WAR

London Refuses The Request
For Reinforcements

PARIS SHOCKED BY REPLY

Unprepared For Severity and Unyielding Tone

French official circles received a distinct shock from the British government's reply to the French suggestion that the allied reinforcements be sent to upper Silesia, and in some quarters today Anglo-French relations are described as critical as a result.

The French government is said to have been unprepared for "the severity and unyielding tone" that some newspapers indicated characterizes the British communication.

Editorial comment suggested that the British Prime Minister, David Lloyd George, acted entirely too hastily in refusing to agree with the French view that additional allied troops were necessary in Upper Silesia.

The commentators also declared that he failed to inform himself fully regarding the necessity of prompt allied action and that he had waited a few hours longer he would have had before him an unanimous report from the allied high commission at Oppeln in which it is urged that immediate reinforcements be sent.

LAST DITCH TARIFF FIGHT IS ON

Fordney Measure Expected To Pass House Today

WASHINGTON — (By Associated Press) — The end of the tariff fight in the house was due today.

A vote on the Fordney bill was scheduled for late in the day, with passage regarded as assured in view of the heavy Republican majority which thus far has supported the measure as a whole.

There were prospects of a bitter last ditch fight, however, over some of the contested sections of the bill which will be voted on again before the final vote is taken on the bill.

Whether the bill will pass or not, the tariff fight is expected to end today.

Richardson was executed at the state penitentiary July 1 and Foley is serving a life term.

BOY DIES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS AT TOLEDO

TOLEDO — Payment G. Biddle, ten-year-old nephew of Dr. Harry G. Biddle, a Toledo physician, is dead at Toledo hospital of the strange malady called sleeping sickness, known to the medical profession as "encephalitis lethargica," a deadly lethargy of sleep.

Death came to the boy Tuesday, it was learned late yesterday. The home of the child is in Evanston, Ill., and he came from that city recently to visit relatives in Ottawa, Ill.

The case was put in the hands of Dr. Biddle, the child's uncle, who placed the boy in Toledo hospital and segregated the case.

MRS. KABER WILL BE PUT TO WORK TODAY

MARYSVILLE, O. — Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber was recovering today at the woman's reformatory here from a near nervous collapse yesterday, when she was brought from Cleveland to begin serving a life sentence for the murder of her publisher husband, Dan F. Kaber, Lakewood.

According to Mrs. Louise Mitten, matron, Mrs. Kaber expressed a desire to go to work today. She may be given light sewing this afternoon, Mrs. Mitten said.

Yesterday after her arrival, and last evening, Mrs. Kaber was in a nearly helpless condition, due, it was said, to incidents of the trip from Cleveland, and a general let-down from the strain of the murder trial.

2 WIDOWS MOURN IRWIN SUICIDE

Dual Life Revealed in Death of Baseball Scout

WIFE IN BOSTON, NEW YORK

Wanted to Die in Arms of Both. They Say

NEW YORK. — (United Press) — Two widows and two families today are mourning the loss of a husband and father in Arthur Irwin, veteran player and manager and baseball scout.

Irwin, told by physicians after an operation that he had only a few days to live, is thought to have committed suicide last week by jumping off a steamer on his way to Boston.

The Boston widow, who was his first wife, said they were married in 1883. She said that she had never suspected him, even though her relatives years ago had insisted that he had another woman in his life.

NEW YORK WIFE
Harold Irwin, the New York son, says that his father and mother were married 27 years ago in Philadelphia, where they met when his father was coaching the University of Pennsylvania baseball team.

The New York widow was slow to believe the revelations. She said that in the twenty-seven years she had never been away from home more than a few days at a time when he would make trips to look at young ball players on college teams and in the minor leagues.

Both widows asserted that the husband wanted to die in their arms.

POSSIBILITIES DIVIDED

The Boston widow pointed to the fact that Irwin went first to his New York family, divided his personal possessions among them and started for Boston to be with her when he was overcome with pain on the steamer and jumped overboard.

The New York widow says "at Irwin left her to bid goodbye to friends in Boston and was going to return to her."

A theory that Irwin was in possession of $5,000 at the time of his disappearance and that he might have been robbed and murdered was discounted by the statement of his New York son that he had left all his money with him with the exception of $35.

WOMEN AT CLEVELAND MEETING DIFFER AS TO LONG AND SHORT SKIRTS

CLEVELAND. — (United Press) — Three essentials are laid down as necessary for the dress of girls and women in business life, by delegates to the convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs they are: Respectability, Efficiency, and Comfort.

The delegates differ, however, on what might be called the proper costume, although all are opposed to any attempt at standardization, saying it destroys individualism, but all oppose extreme styles.

A diversity of opinion arose when the delegates were asked as to the length of shortness of skirts. Discussion of this question broke out on the floor of the convention with Miss Jessie Ake-man, delegate from Chicago, scored states that were attempting to eliminate the short skirts by legislation.

"The dress is becoming incidental to women, as it is to men," she said. "There was no scandal when men in George Washington's time wore short pants."

New Road Is Between Palestine

LONDON. — (By Associated Press) — Regions that would have to wait many years before they could be traversed by railways are now quickly mastered by aerial transport. News comes today from the Air Ministry that a new air route has been opened up across the desert between Palestine and Mesopotamia. Notification has been received of the arrival at Bagdad of three airplanes of the Royal Air Force which have flown over this route.

FOUR BURNED IN SUICIDE PACT

Two Women and Two Tots Die
In Cleveland Fire

VICTIMS FOUND IN BED

Eccentric Mother and Daughter
Blamed For Act

CLEVELAND. — (By Associated Press) — Two women and two children were burned and suffocated to death in a boarding house fire shortly before noon today. The women were Mrs. Eliza Moselman, 70, and her daughter, Miss Tillie Moselman, 37, proprietress of the boarding house. The children were Helen Stankovich, three, and Felix Stankovich, two, said to have been left at the boarding house recently by their father. All four were found dead in a bed, the children in the arms of the women.

FATHER AWAY
The baby victims were left with the Moselman women while their father, John Stankovich, went to Short Creek, Va., to secure work. The origin of the fire is a mystery unless it was deliberately started by the women. In the absence of a definite solution the police are working on the theory that the aged woman and her daughter, said to be wealthy and eccentric, entered into a suicide pact, and deliberately fired the bed mattress.

Police believe that the circumstances surrounding the tragedy point to a suicide pact, believing the two women destroyed themselves and dragged the children to the same death.

REVENUE IN FLAMES

Half an hour before the four charred bodies were found, Herman Brill, a collector, called at the house. He was met at the door by Tillie Moselman. Mrs. Moselman was in the kitchen and the two children were playing in the front room. All were fully clothed.

A short time after Brill left the house, William Cook, a neighbor, saw smoke pouring from the bedroom window on the second floor. He ran to the house and found the door locked. The kitchen window also was locked. Cook secured a ladder and reached the second floor bedroom which he found locked and forced it open. Only the bed and a sofa were left. The bed and sofa had been burned away from the bodies of the women and children burned almost beyond recognition. The arms of the two women were locked around the children.

REVENUE IN FLAMES

After an investigation of the tragedy police declared they believed the mother and daughter took the lives of the children and their own as well, because they did not want to give up the babies. They learned the father of the children had written Mrs. Moselman, instructing her to turn Helen and Felix over to their grandmother. Mrs. Theresa White, before the end of the week.

DELAYED WITNESS HALTS HOUSE BERGQOLL PROBE

WASHINGTON. — (By Associated Press) — House committee hearings in the Bergdoll case were deferred until tomorrow because Major Bruce Campbell, ordered here from Camp Pike, Arkansas, by the war department to answer charges of having accepted $5,000 to aid Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, Philadelphia draft dodger, to escape had not reached Washington at the hour fixed for today's meeting of the committee.

The army intelligence service informed Chairman Peters that Major Campbell had wired that he left for Rock at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night and it was expected he would be here during the day. The order directed him to report to General Pershing and it had been planned to send him immediately before the committee.

COLUMBUS. — Representative bakers of the state are meeting with T. C. Gault, state dairy and food commissioner here today, to discuss the new bakery law effective September 7, which provides for uniform weight loaves of bread and contains other features regulating the industry.

The conference was arranged at the convention of the Ohio Association of Bakers held recently at Cedar Point.

MARION, Ohio. — While attending prayer meeting last night, Dr. Thomas M. McAfee, pastor of Trinity Baptist church, President Harding's home church, suffered a paralytic stroke. His condition is serious according to attending physicians.

Rev. McAfee was to have delivered the invocation at President Harding's notification, last July 22, but was stricken ill two days before that date.

DEVALERA QUILTS LONDON PARLEY

Unable To Agree On Peace Basis
With Lloyd-George

WILL RETURN TO DUBLIN

May Resume Conference After Seeing Followers

LONDON. — (By Associated Press.) — The basis for a conference to attempt a settlement of the Irish question has not yet been found. It was announced in the official communiqué issued after a conference today between Eamon De Valera and Premier Lloyd George, who have been conferring with the object of finding such a basis.

Mr. De Valera and his colleague, adds the communiqué, will return to Dublin tomorrow and will communicate with Mr. Lloyd-George after further discussions with his followers there.

After the conference with the prime minister, Mr. De Valera and Robert C. Barton and Art O'Brien, who accompanied him to Downing-street, drove in a motor car to their hotel. Mr. Barton, however, accompanied by Secretary Children of the Irish delegation, immediately returned to Downing-street, where it required an hour's further discussion before an agreement was reached on the text of the communiqué issued to the press.

LENGTHY EXCHANGE

The Irish delegation submitted the first draft of the communiqué, to which Mr. Lloyd George withheld his assent. His substitute failed to meet with the approval of the Irish representatives and a lengthy exchange ensued before a draft mutually satisfactory was drawn.

The text of the communiqué, which was issued first by the Irish delegation, being withheld at Downing-street for more than half an hour, is as follows:

"Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. De Valera had a further conversation at 11:30 o'clock this morning, lasting about an hour. The basis for a further conference has not yet been found. Mr. De Valera has arranged to return to Ireland tomorrow and to communicate with Mr. Lloyd George again after further discussions with his colleagues."

PROPOSALS REJECTED

At the final meeting of the British prime minister and the Irish republican leader today, Mr. Lloyd George submitted definite proposals which were represented as the considered judgment of himself and his cabinet as constituting suitable ground for a full fledged peace parley, based upon his interviews of the past week with Mr. De Valera and Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier.

These proposals, it is learned authoritatively, comprised less than ten articles.

Whether they met with a flat rejection by the Irish republican leader or were taken by him without comment for review by himself and his colleagues in Dublin, in the hope they might contain the nucleus for negotiations, was concealed by the brief joint communiqué issued after the meeting.

OIL FIRE REPORTS CONFLICT

Number of Wells Burning In Mexico Not Known

MEXICO CITY. — (By Associated Press) — Reports concerning the fire in the Amatlan oil field in the state of Vera Cruz received up to a late hour last night were conflicting and meager, among most all of them agreed that the fire was of accidental origin and that four wells were burning in Lot 162, centering about Amatlan, which is 70 miles southwest of Tampico.

Several dispatches received last night asserted that the whole of Lot 162, comprising thirty-five hectares or approximately 85 acres, and been swept of its drilling rigs and other property and that "numerous" wells were burning with no hope of their being extinguished. On the other hand, other dispatches declared that the fire was confined to three or four wells with fire fighting forces recruited from thousands of laborers from other fields so organized as to render a spread of the flames unlikely.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WERE ABLE TO ADD BUT LITTLE UP TO MIDNIGHT TO THE GENERAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE SITUATION.

All estimates of the monetary loss can only be mere guess work until the flames have subsided.

JAPS SEE DANGER IN U. S. MEETING

Means Trial of Foreign Policies, Tokio Believes

WILL FIGHT ISOLATION MOVE

Plan of Disarmament Conference Still Opposed

TOKIO.—(By Associated Press).

The Japanese cabinet, the Nichi Nichi Shimbun says today, has decided to participate in the proposed Washington conference with a general program of not discussing questions affecting sovereign rights of participants, and also not to discuss the Shantung and Yap questions, which it held were decided by the Paris peace conference.

A delegation of peers representing all the parties visited, foreign minister Kato today and questioned him concerning the conference, according to the Yomiuri Shimbun.

JAPANESE VIEWS

Viscount Uchida expounded his views with relation to the conference and the Anglo-Japanese alliance, says the newspaper, and added that although the questions of Shantung and Sibiria were popularly supposed to be included among those to be discussed by the conference, and might be included, these matters had in fact been decided at the Paris conference.

In an interview in the Jiji Shimbun today, Viscount Kato, leader of the Kensei-Kai, the opposition party, declares against the formation of a coalition government, and adds:

"All Japan has to do at the conference is to present her case openly and candidly. America is not a nation which refuses to withdraw from a position once she is met with argument based on justice. Isolation must be avoided at all costs, but Japan is in no such danger."

PROPOSITION FEARED

The comment on the Washington conference now appearing indicates that Japan is recovering from the first shock of surprise caused by the invitation, but everything points to the disarmament issue being drafted in the public mind in comparison with the importance of the proposition for a discussion of Far Eastern problems and policies.

The press, which continues to be absorbed with the subject of the conference, also presents the views of pessimists who foresee danger from the proposition. Thus America is pictured by some commentators as summoning the powers so as virtually to place Japan on trial for her foreign policy.

Meanwhile arrangements are being made for a special steamer to transport the Japanese delegation to the United States for the conference.

COMBINE CHARGED IN MINGO FIELD

W. Va. Owners Seek to Expose Price-Raising Plan

WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press).—Counsel for coal operators in the Mingo, West Virginia, fields sought to show at today's hearing before the Senate investigating committee that mine owners in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and western Pennsylvania, had conferred with miners in an effort to unionize West Virginia mines to "destroy their competitive advantage."

A. M. Belcher, for the operators, charged that a conspiracy was entered into 23 years ago, had existed since, and culminated a year ago in the strike, accompanied by disorders in the Mingo non-union field. Operators employing union miners in the four nearby states, Belcher contended, became alarmed because West Virginia coal was being mined cheaper and cutting into their market. By encouraging unionizing of the West Virginia field, he charged, they hoped to increase cost of production there, with the possibility also that output might be cut down by a recurrence of strikes.

Thomas L. Lewis, secretary of the New River, W. Va., Coal Operators Association, testified that at joint conferences between union miners and operators competing with West Virginia non-union mines, the development of the West Virginia properties was viewed with alarm. It was deemed imperative, he said, that the mines should be unionized.

COUNCIL MEMBERS OPPOSE MAYOR

Declare Against Use Of Money For Policewomen

Members of council on Thursday expressed their disapproval of the scheme of Mayor Frank A. Burkhardt to add two policewomen to the department.

"This is an attempt to expand the force," declared Councilman Earl John of the finance committee. "All departments should practice economy, as should everyone else at this time."

Councilman John stated that at the time the finance body cut on the mayor's appropriation for investigation of liquor traffic and vice, he was unable to learn from the mayor of any prosecutions which had been instituted as a result of the employment of Mrs. Amelia Van Gunten. It was claimed by the mayor, John said, that she had secured a great deal of evidence concerning immorality and liquor traffic.

Councilman Ellis Jones said that he had not heard of the matter, but that he opposed it. There were too many on the force now, he said.

Mayor Burkhardt stated Thursday he would recommend to council the employment of women officers. Toledo, Columbus, Dayton and all other cities have women on the force, he stated and he feels that Lima should follow in line.

TO SAIL FOR SOUTH SEA IN 34 FOOT YAWL

LOS ANGELES.—Harry Pidgeon, who, single-handed, sailed his little thirty-four-foot yawl islander from Los Angeles Harbor to Honolulu and back last Summer, is again consumed with the Pacific Ocean wanderlust and is reported to be outfitting for a longer cruise. He will leave shortly for the South Sea Islands in the islander, heading for the Marquesas, some 3,000 miles southwest of the local port.

The mariner, who is fifty-six years old, had his first taste of cruising on the Mississippi River in 1903, when he drifted down that stream in a flat-bottomed craft from Minneapolis to below New Orleans. On this boat he had no sails, just a pair of big sweeps, with which he prevented the craft from being swept ashore by the current on the way downstream.

Later he went to Alaska, where he prospectored for a number of years, having his first taste of the ocean aboard vessels running between Puget Sound and Alaska.

He has "read up" on the Marquesas Islands and believes he will find them most interesting. It all goes well he may continue his voyage to other islands in the South Pacific.

STEUERNAGLE IS GIVEN DIVORCE

Farm. Principal Bone of Contention, Is Divided

While J. Henry Steuernagle, wealthy Monroe-twp. farmer, won a decree of divorce from his wife, Clara M. Steuernagle, on grounds of neglect, the decision of Judge Henry W. Blachly, of Van Wert, in common pleas court Thursday is practically a draw on property division. The 89-acre farm, the main contention in the case, was ordered sold, and the proceeds divided equally between the contestants, after necessary expenses are paid.

Mrs. Steuernagle is awarded a portion of the household effects, but a portion of the furniture will go to the husband, who showed possession of them prior to his marriage. All personal property, including the automobile owned by the plaintiff will accrue to him, by order of the court. The plaintiff will get the crops off the farm this year, but will have to pay $150 to Mrs. Steuernagle, out of money obtained from their sale.

Mrs. Steuernagle will retain the automobile which she has used and will also get all money deposited by her in the savings and loan association.

B. J. Thomas was appointed trustee by the court to sell the farm in Monroe-twp. after 30 days notice has been given of the auction. Thomas will retain a reasonable compensation for his service and pay the costs of the sale and effect an equitable division of the remainder.

The Steuernagles have been held together by a common interest in the property. Mrs. Steuernagle did the cooking and housework for her husband during the progress of the divorce hearing a month ago. Judge Blachly, had the case under advisement since the close of the trial.

WOMAN AND BABE ARE MISSING

Police Plan to Drag River in Search For Mrs. Edgerton

Believing that she may have committed suicide, police Thursday planned to drag Ottawa river, near the Metcalf-st bridge in an effort to locate Mrs. Vivian Edgerton, 20, 1203 W. High-st, who disappeared from her home, Tuesday night. No report was made of the matter to them, police say until Thursday morning. Mrs. Edgerton is said to have taken her several months old baby with her.

Residents of the Metcalf-st bridge neighborhood declare they saw a strange woman standing on the bank of the creek about 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. They were unable to say whether the woman carried a baby. Later police discovered that the same woman was seen farther down the stream about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Motorcop Glover was detailed to search the banks of the stream, Thursday morning. He found no clue to the missing woman, or to the identity of the woman who was seen there. Because of the high weeds, which grow in and near the stream, police say, it is possible for the body to be hidden there. However, there is no reason to believe that the woman seen on the creek Wednesday was Mrs. Edgerton, they say.

The woman's husband, who reported the matter to police, could offer no explanation of his wife's disappearance.

BUSINESS BOOM IN FALL FORECAST

Retailers Expect Buying to Resume Soon

NEW YORK.—(By United Press).—The buying boom is on. Retailers throughout the country, staking thousands that business will take a jump in the fall, are laying in big stocks for the first time in years.

"Business is bound to take a leap upward," Alfred Santl, buyer for a large department store from San Francisco to Boston, told the United Press today.

Garment retailers at present are placing huge orders. The demand has taken such an upward trend in the last few weeks that we have been forced to double our staff.

"It is a different kind of buying from the pre-war basis.

"The demand is for staple goods, not frills as people are going to buy coats, underwear and shirts—not earrings and fancy vests. All they want are utilities and necessities.

"There is no doubt that the public will make a big demand for necessities in September and October. They are convinced that we have traversed a few more lines back to normalcy and are preparing for the rush.

"It has been a long time coming—but now it's here.

"There's going to be a business jubilation in the fall and it's time the boys were getting on the band wagon."

CAMP CALL HALTS SOLDIER TRIAL

St. Marys Man to Face Contempt Charges Later

WAPAKONETA.—(Special).—A call to Camp Perry for annual maneuvers has given Adolph Simonson, a St. Marys millman, a temporary respite before facing the court on a contempt charge. In April his wife, Daisy, was granted temporary alimony of $5 per week, pending the outcome of her divorce petition, but Simonson refused to pay a single installment. The date of his hearings on the contempt charge was set for Saturday, but as he leaves for Camp Perry the court deferred it until he returns.

Several thousand of this year's spawn of bass and marble head catfish, hatched at St. Marys, were placed into the Auglaize river here.

Funeral services for John T. Reincke, 54, Fryburg, were held Thursday morning from the Catholic church in that hamlet, east of here.

Two troops of Boy Scouts will be organized here Wednesday, according to Cleve Davis, scoutmaster.

An injunction suit against the city was settled Wednesday when the Heller heirs agreed to accept reduction from $1,237 to $853 for assessment on Defiance-st paving. Case was pending in common pleas court for two and a half years.

A child of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Green in this city is a sufferer from infantile paralysis.

PAVE SHAWNEE-RD WITH WILLITE

Commissioners Award Contract For $36,923.94.

The Willite Construction company, represented by J. G. Tait, won award of contract for paving Shawnee-rd from the Spencerville-rd to the bridge near the Country Club, a distance of 1 1/4 miles. The cost will be $36,923.94, according to announcement made by the county commissioners, who awarded the contract Thursday.

The bid of the Willite company was the highest submitted, but was accepted because it was within the specifications. Bids entered by Frank A. Frohase and Amos Long were thrown out because it was held they did not conform to specifications.

The road-way will be approximately 18 feet wide and is to be completed before winter.

Estimates on the cost of the Elida road connecting Lima and Elida, a distance of 4.41 miles, will be submitted to the state highway department by the commissioners, specifications having been mailed Thursday.

The commissioners have prepared cost prices for three types of road. The highest type will cost $171,000 for the paving and construction of bridges.

The estimates per mile for paving alone are: Asphalt $32,021; concrete asphalt $30,960 and bituminous macadam $24,400.

Bonds in the sum of $171,000 have been issued to pay the cost of the road. The county will sell one-half the issue to pay its share. The highest type will be sold by the state, for its part. If the highway department selects one of the less expensive types of road all of the appropriation will not be needed.

VALIDITY OF LAW IS ATTACKED

Move Made For Setting Aside of Merrell Sentence

A petition in error was filed Thursday in common pleas court by S. A. Armstrong, counsel for G. J. Merrell, who was sentenced to the Mansfield reformatory recently by Judge F. C. Becker, for an indeterminate term, after having been found guilty of taking and using Ora M. Green's touring car without permission of the owner.

When the car was wrecked, one of Merrell's companions was killed.

The petition seeks to have the Merrell sentence set aside, on the ground that the indeterminate sentence law is invalid. The law was amended by the General Assembly and became effective July 4, providing that sentences to the Ohio penitentiary must specify the term for which the prisoner is to be confined.

Counsel for Merrell maintains that the same principle would apply to prisoners sentenced to the reformatory; that the trial judge should fix the time of imprisonment, rather than to leave it to a clemency board. The petition sets forth that the court erred in committing Merrell to prison and that irregularities occurred during the progress of the case.

DRUGGISTS OPEN FIGHT ON HAYES

May Test Position of National Drug Commissioner

CEDAR POINT, Ohio.—(By Associated Press).—Unless certain medical preparations listed as intoxicating liquors, such as spirits of camphor, spirits of nitre, etc., are removed from the "alcoholic list" immediately National Prohibition Commissioner Hayes will be brought into court in an effort to test his position.

A resolution to this effect was unanimously adopted at today's session of the Ohio State Pharmacists' convention being held here. The pharmacists also demanded that the bond exemption for the withdrawal of alcohol for medicinal purposes be enforced on all druggists before such liquors can be carried in stock, be withdrawn immediately.

The resolutions in part follow: "We petition the National Prohibition Commissioner to remove such preparations from the restricted list and in the event that he refuse to do so we recommend joining hands with the medical and other pharmaceutical bodies in testing his position."

"We believe the course of the regulations of the prohibition commissioner which has become an unbearable burden to the retail drug business throughout the United States, is due entirely to lack of proper knowledge and understanding of retail pharmacists."

"We also demand that the bond exemption for withdrawal of alcohol for medicinal purposes used by retail pharmacists be withdrawn. We also ask that the supply allotted to druggists be increased in cases where the allotment is below the demand."

DEALERS EXPLAIN COST CAUSES

Sugar Down, Confection Prices
Reduced Little

Decreases in the price of sugar have failed to bring corresponding reductions in the prices of confections in Lima, according to a survey made of the ice cream parlors of the city. Cuts in the price of sodas, dopes, sundaes and all other soft drinks have been noted, yet the drop does not equal that taken by sugar since its high point was reached last year.

Owners and managers of confectionery stores hold the cost of labor, fruits, juices, nuts and ice responsible for the failure of confection prices to follow in the footsteps of the sugar drops.

However, they do point out that prices have been cut considerably over last year. For example, they cite that sodas now selling for 17 cents, sold last year for 22 cents; dopes selling last year for 22 cents are now selling for 17 cents; nut sundaes which sold last year for 27 cents are selling this year for 22 cents.

With the exception of Coco Cola, prices in Lima are almost uniform for the various drinks. However, the popular soft drink is being quoted all the way from a nickel to the old wartime and post bellum price of 11 cents.

Dealers explain the variance by saying that the difference in the amount of syrup used in the drink brings the difference in price.

Were confections to follow directly in the path of dropping sugar prices, they would be back to pre-war prices, is the general opinion expressed. However, proprietors of the various stores declare that the demands of their labor for higher wages than were paid at any time previous is the biggest item in keeping confection prices from falling directly with sugar.

Some managers lay special stress upon the failure of the price of fruit to drop, causing syrup to more expensive than under normal circumstances. Ice, which is also a big factor at soda fountains, is said to affect the price of sodas, sundaes, dopes and soft drinks. Before the war ice was bought for about $3 a ton, they say, while now they must pay $8 a ton. An enormous quantity of ice, they declare, is used by the fountains.

No further drop is predicted. Dealers hold, rather, that prices are tending toward an increase.

17 CHILDREN IN HEALTH CONFERENCE AT GOMER

Unusual interest is being taken in the children's health conferences which are being held at different points thruout the county by Allen County Health Commissioner Dr. J. J. Suttar.

At the conference in Gomer Wednesday, 17 children were examined. This was seven more than had been expected. Indications point to a large attendance at the conference to be held at Beaverdam on Friday and also at Bluffton, July 29. Two physicians will be needed at each of these conferences, to examine the large number of children.

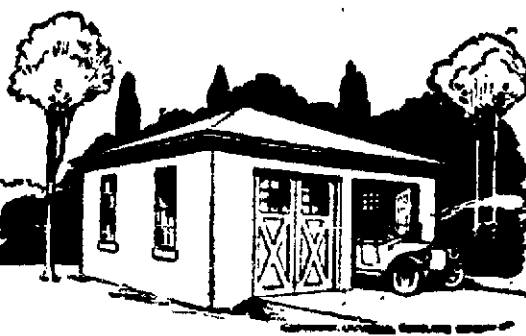

Sentiment among the mothers who have attended the conferences previously held, is toward more than one conference in a locality a year. Many children have defects which are not noticed by the mothers and which apparently do not impair the health of the child. In these conferences the defects are discovered and future trouble averted. It is possible that some arrangement may be made for more than one conference a year in certain of the localities.

INJUNCTION AGAINST SCHOOL IS GRANTED

YOUNGSTOWN.—A temporary injunction was granted here today to restrain the Moore-Lamb Construction Company and the school board of East Youngstown from entering into a contract for enlarging a school building in East Youngstown, which is a separate municipality.

A contract was let to the Moore-Lamb Company on Tuesday, although another firm's bid was several thousand dollars lower. Complainants said that three members of the school board are employees or former employees of the Moore-Lamb company.

REFUGEES LIVE IN OLD DUGOUTS

No Houses Left Standing in Polish Battle Area

GREAT LACK OF FOOD

U. S. Relief Inspectors Find Conditions Pitiful

WARSAW — (By Associated Press)—Inspectors of the European Children's Fund which is feeding 1,500,000 children in Poland have just explored districts along the eastern frontier of the new republic where thousands of persons made homeless by war are living in soldiers' dugouts and where no white bread has been seen in more than three years. Hereafter, it has been almost impossible to reach these areas chiefly because of lack of transportation.

In the Pripiet marsh country, between Pinsk and the Russian border, one inspector reported that after reaching the railroad terminal he had traveled two days by automobile, then by boat and horseback to visit homes which had been reported in need. Potatoes had been the principal food upon which these people existed during the winter, the inspectors reported, and with the coming of spring, men, women and children lived chiefly upon cooked grass, dandelions and some farm products.

At various points along the frontier, which follows the old German-Russian trench line of 1917, peasants who had been driven from their homes by advancing armies, have been returning, only to find their homes demolished and virtually everything gone, excepting the bare land. They have taken to the dugouts for shelter until they are able to build shacks upon their holdings. In scores of villages in this battle area not one house has been left standing. They were demolished either during the fighting between the Russians and the Germans or afterward when the Bolsheviks invaded the territory which is now a part of Poland. No attempt has been made to reorganize the local government.

In 1914 the village of Toboly had 123 buildings. Not a house is left standing. Of the inhabitants about 500 are living in dugouts and 80 other persons have sought shelter in nearby barracks.

Three hundred persons who claim Swallowing as their home town are all living in dugouts. When the German and Russian armies clashed, Lubieszow, was a thriving village of 395 buildings. Twenty houses are now standing, some badly damaged by shell fire. There 800 persons are living in barracks and the 20 houses. Because of the shortage of horses it was a common sight in these districts, according to the inspectors' reports, to see men and women pulling plows in the fields.

Arrangements have been made by the relief administration officials to get food to these districts as soon as possible and, during the summer, kitchens will be established where all children up to 17 years of age will receive one full meal each day.

ASKS RELEASE OF HUSBAND JAILED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — There are two very good reasons why George Albert, serving a term for "moon shining," should be pardoned from the Arkansas State Prison, according to a letter from Mrs. Albert to Governor McRae. The two reasons were printed in the letter in the form of photographs. They are twins born since their father went to prison. George Albert, 28, a farm boy, yielded to temptation when he imitated the brewing of "white naps" in the hills near Fayetteville, according to the pretty Mrs. Albert, who declared in her letter to the Governor that college students, "who are supposed to be educated," caused her husband to go wrong. He won't make any more booze if the Governor will be kind and let him come home to the newly-borns.

Keep The Egg Basket Full!

The feed elements that make whites of eggs are entirely different from those that make yolks. When hens aren't fed both the white and yolk making elements, they can't keep the egg basket full. The usual method of feeding mostly grain makes yolks but not enough whites to complete the eggs.

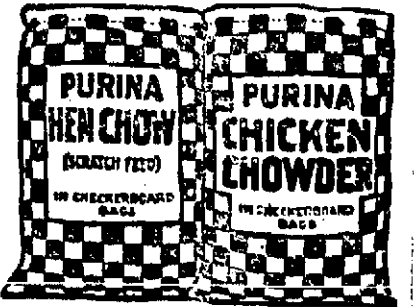

Missouri Experiment Station tests prove that 100 lbs. of wheat, corn, oats, barley and kafir corn make (above bodily maintenance) an average of 224 yolks to 154 whites. Based on data from the same experiments, Purina formulas produce, (above bodily maintenance) as follows:

	Yolks	Whites
Purina Hen Chow	247.49	142.11
Purina Chicken Chowder	182.05	282.55
Combined Ration	429.54	424.66

These Purina chows not only make a practically equal number of whites and yolks but more of both than ordinary chows.

Note that Purina Chicken Chowder contains the necessary white-forming elements to balance up the yolk-making grain. That's why it makes hens lay so heavily. Instead of the yolks being absorbed by the hen's system, Purina Chicken Chowder makes the whites to complete the eggs and they are laid. Thus we can absolutely guarantee more eggs or money back on Purina Chicken Chowder if fed with Purina Hen Chow as directed. You take no risk.

cannot hope ever to become strong and well again unless they have plenty of good, rich, red blood of the kind that Nuxated Iron—helps make. Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on iron filings. Nuxated Iron does not injure the teeth nor upset the stomach; it is an entirely different thing from ordinary metallic iron. It quickly helps make rich, red blood, revitalizes worn-out, exhausted nerves and gives you new strength and energy. Over 4,000,000 people annually are using it. At all druggists. CROWDS

Attend Big Sale In Lima's Leading Department Store

The hundreds of customers who visited the big Blum Store at Market and Elizabeth street yesterday and took advantage of the exceptional bargains offered by this progressive establishment were very fortunate.

The weather was ideal for shopping and the items offered at $1 during this unprecedented sale were without exception the best values ever offered in Lima.

From 7:30 in the morning until the doors were opened at 8:15, hundreds of eager shoppers waited in front of Blum's entrances.

During the Silk Waist Sale, between 2 and 4 p. m., at least 500 to 600 customers were on the third floor taking advantage of the big reductions in prices.

For two solid hours the two spacious elevators were packed with customers going and coming from the Ready-to-Wear department where the Silk Waist Sale was held. Never in the history of Lima has there been such response to an advertised sale as was evidenced during the Dollar Day Sale at Blum's yesterday.

CLAIM EXCESSIVE WATER CHARGE

Injunction Suit Against Service Director and City

Is it possible for a family to use 100,000 cubic feet of water in six months, when in the previous six months the same number of persons only used about 5,000 cubic feet of water?

Elmer McClain, Lima service director, for the second time in the past month has been made defendant in injunction proceedings growing out of alleged excessive charges made for city water service.

Suit was taken in common pleas court Thursday by Mrs. Anna Bloom, Harry Bloom and Ida Miller, 138 E. Kirby-st. Their charge McClain presented a water bill for six months ending July 1 for $164. During the previous six months, ending December 31, 1920, the charge was $14. The plaintiffs claim they could not have used the amount which McClain seeks to collect on behalf of the city.

McClain has threatened to cut off service, if payment is not made, the complainants aver. The plaintiffs secured a temporary order enjoining McClain from shutting off the water service.

A similar suit was filed in common pleas court on July 12 by Judge Kent Hughes, of the court of appeals.

Judge Hughes was charged with $126 for water service. His previous bills had been but a fraction of the amount, he claimed.

In both instances, the plaintiffs express the belief that their meters are faulty. In the past month many complaints have been received by the water department from consumers regarding faulty meters, which cause bills to soar.

Until Judge Hughes instituted suit, the consumers vented their ire in loud complaints. Since his suit was filed, however, other consumers have taken steps to obtain redress.

MARSHAL FOCH COMING

A LITTLE grey clad man who flitted along the allied army's western front in France during the world war, quiet and unassuming and who was not always recognized as a Marshal of France, in supreme command of the armies of several nations that were smashing into the Hindenberg line and slowly but nevertheless surely bringing success to the forces fighting against military autocracy, is coming to America.

Marshal Foch is to arrive here in October. He hopes to visit every state in the union and unless present plans fail he will step foot on Lima soil. Ever since he led American troops in battle, this wonderful wizard of the military game has been anxious to visit the United States.

For his successful strategy, his faith in the cause he was directing and his constant concern for the saving of the lives of soldiers, won for him the admiration and respect of the allied soldiers. He will be given a fitting welcome in America.

SITTING ON A VOLCANO

JUST as an individual is known by the company he keeps—or rather stays away from—in like measure is a city known by its sanitary condition.

With the Ottawa river in its present condition, Lima has nothing particular to brag about in the matter of sanitation. The odoriferous creek is a source of annoyance to citizens who have been compelled to "get used to it," but to strangers and others who meet the "gas attack" for the first time, it is actually repelling and affords visitors an unwholesome impression of the city.

With the river a veritable cesspool, this city is actually "sitting on a volcano." It's dangerous from a health standpoint and positions being hurried to the state board of health concerning the nuisance may impel that august body to take this city by the ears.

WHITE CAPS AGAIN!

CRIME and reform run in cycles. Likewise, citizens of various communities have their "spells" of permitting the law to take its course and taking the law into their own hands.

Particularly in the south, when an outraged neighborhood feels that justice is not being meted out properly, white cap bands or ku klux klan are organized. Night rides are frequent and violators of the law are dealt with summarily.

The latest outbreak of this kind has just occurred in Missouri, where summary justice is meted out by night riders attired in white. Bigamists, wife beaters and petty thieves are lashed with a blacksnake and tarred and feathered.

These incidents are wrong, of course, but they may serve to cause officials to be more zealous in enforcing the law.

LONDON'S UNIQUE SIGN

ENTERING the town of London, in Madison-co, auto drivers are confronted by a unique sign, which reads:

Drive slow and see our city!

Drive fast and see our jail!

The signs were erected at main entrances to the town by the business men's club of London, probably for a double purpose.

The very oddity of the invitation perhaps appeals to the motorist. It is a threat couched in words that convey an invitation as well as a warning.

Catching the humor of the thing, auto drivers obey the traffic law and tarry awhile in the town, for it is a very attractive little city.

While there, they probably spend money. They depart in a frame of mind more pleasant than if they had been taken before a magistrate and fined. And quite likely they'll visit London again at the first opportunity.

A PREACHER FIGHTER

WE learned many things as a result of the war. Providing entertainment and diversion for men far away from their homes, under strict military discipline, was a task that fell to the lot of the chaplains of the regiments, to the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and kindred organizations that gave yeomen service in the camps, in the hospitals, aboard ship and elsewhere.

Lessons taught to big men who sought to learn the things that soldiers wanted most have not been forgotten altogether.

Ohio national guard soldiers are in camp at Camp Perry. There the wartime diversions are being continued. Glove contests are being staged. And to demonstrate that he favors the game, the Rev. W. F. O'Connor, chaplain of the 107th Cavalry stepped into the squared circle and fought four furious rounds with the padded mittens against Captain Jack Millet, Adjutant, director of the Cincinnati riding club.

That particular "sky pilot" has made himself solid with the soldier boys. He'll get better results among them than if he were of the long-faced type, holding up his hands in holy horror at the suggestion of a prize fight.

Men of the type of Rev. O'Connor are the real exponents of their calling, meeting men on man's level and enlisting his interest in higher things by participating wholeheartedly in clean sports that appeal to those whose hearts and souls he seeks to reach.

SHORT ONES

USIT money doesn't always hush up the after-effects of the deal it stopped.

LIMA has attained the reputation of starting more things municipally with no money to pay for them, than any other city.

NOT all the flyovers are automobiles. They can be found in politics, business and in many other line of endeavor—particularly politics.

WHEN a man's fellow citizens begin to talk about the necessity of running him out of the community for its good, somebody ought to sit up and take notice.

A LITTLE thing like no money to pay witnesses in city court cases doesn't seem to worry some folks, so long as there is a fund for the purchase of "evidence."

ONE other contributor to the cause of humanity is the restaurateur who has reduced the price of sandwiches from ten to five. Perhaps the habit may spread.

THERE is something left to live for! Lima's official family has less than six months' time for squabbling over inconsequential, while important things are neglected.

THOSE just returned from their vacation can't resist the temptation to smile when they meet others going. There's the memory of the mosquito and the chigger, you know.

THE joy of living isn't altogether destroyed for others by the fellow who tries to see how near he can run his car past a pedestrian without hitting him. But it reduces the batting average.

A NEWS item that conveys information of the reopening of a factory and the employment of a large number of men is eminently more pleasing than one that tells of the closing of an industry.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN ORANGE

Smoke and flames from newly made fires in the hardening boxes at the Madden-Morrison tile works on Dolson-ave Sunday night caused Officer Roy H. Rogers to turn in an alarm of fire from box 416 at the tile shop at 10:45 o'clock. On investigation the cause of the alarm was discovered. All companies except Eagles and Ontarios answered. Chief Higham responded in his recently painted chief's car, which has been given several coats of bright red. The alarm attracted a large number of spectators to the scene. The recall was sounded at 11:30 o'clock—Orange County Times-Press.

If a street car motorman had a clerical appearance, would you judge that he had once been a minister but, finding it too difficult to steer souls along the strait and narrow, had switched to trolleys? Or wouldn't you?

PROF. STEINBRUGGE SAYS:

Men who are good looking and whom women like are often going thru life with a handicap. It is according to the natural law that a man should be loved by a woman. There is a something that permeates the character of the man who is the victim of adoration from too many women. He shows it outwardly and seems less forceful. Worldly success is hampered and too much time is wasted with the insane, pointless and frivolous side of life.

Love one woman and you will find that a liberal education and a great help. Leave the others alone and you will avoid trouble and suffering.

Get a good one and leave the rest alone.—Marcel Steinbrugg

ON HUNGER

I DOUBT if all the wars that ever drenched the earth with human blood have yet destroyed as many lives as the gaunt spectre hunger. Gentlemen, do you know that in the history of the peoples of the world, it is recorded that there have fallen upon the race of men 350 distinct periods of famine—dire, destructive, remorseless famine—and the last one in China within a year? There is no emergency short of a possible war at all comparable to a shortage of a nation's food supply. There is no calamity so terrible in its consequences. There is no word that holds such terror for the soul as the word "hunger." No autocrat inspires such fear, no despot accomplishes such desolation. No feast is ever forward in the halls of death such as this grim caterer, famine, has set a thousand times, when humanity has furnished the victims that "lured her lank jaw."—Representative White (R). JUST FOLKS—BY EDGAR A. GUEST

VACATION THOUGHTS

Never noticed that squeak in the stairs before, Yet it haunts me now with its dismal tone And it seems to say to me o'er and o'er: "This is your house, but you're all alone!"

What's got into the clock down there That ticks so loud? It is all so queer, I never have heard it before, I swear, When the boy was home and the mother here.

What's gone wrong with the living room? The chairs look ghostly and gaunt and grim, Like cold, gray figures beside a tomb. They're not the same without her (Copyright, 1921.)

and him. Why should I jump when a curtain flaps? And what's the matter with me tonight? A little nervous and tired, perhaps. But why should I feel that nothing's right?

Oh, an empty house is a dismal place Despite what comes and scoffers say. It needs the light of a smiling face, For home's not home with the folks away.

And the clock will tick and the floor will squeak And the rooms seem ghostly and cold and black, The nights will be dreary and long and bleak Till the summer goes and the folks get back.

WHAT THE STARS PREDICT

This is an uncertain day. The summer resort romances of this year will be more numerous and more sensational than usual, but will be neither lasting nor satisfactory. It is prophesied that unusual condition will make the Federal Government hasten its health program. In the early Autumn, there will be earthquakes in regions seldom afflicted by them in the past. This rule of the stars is not fortunate for love affairs, since although there will be much wooing, it will bring regret. Persons whose birthday this is should govern their business affairs very carefully; they may suffer much anxiety, but there will be no real cause for it. Children born on this day will be strong in mind and body and will be very successful in business. (Copyright, 1921.)

HEALTH HINTS

By William Brady, M. D.
GRANPA COUGHS

Among the numerous things which we attribute to our grandfathers but of which they are not guilty is chronic bronchitis. What we do perhaps inherit from grandpa is his ignorance of hygiene and his unhealthful habit of life. Such a purely voluntary sin as overeating runs in families beyond a doubt. So does fear of moving air; moving air would probably have no terrors for any older were it not for the other names—fresh air and a draft. If we could treat grandpa with a coldwater current of moving air labeled "Guarantee" under the Food and Drugs act, June 20, 1906, and at the same time present him a sheet of fervid testimonials from others who had been brought back from the very brink by this wonderful treatment, probably grandpa would try it. You know, while that "Guarantee" gag was worked on the dear public under the approval of the government, a lot of dangerous, dope-laden, utterly vicious stuff was swallowed without question by the people who didn't believe Uncle Sam would play such a crooked game. But a bona fide guarantee could be given with every current of moving air, at least every current of outdoor air of air coming in straight from the outdoors. Provided the illness is not sufficiently sharp to call for rest, the best place one can be in any part of the world, any season and any weather, when entertaining any of the respiratory infections, from croup to pneumonia to diphtheria to bronchitis, is out of doors. Yet such is the influence of the catching cold phobia that patients and their friends will complain against open air treatment for these diseases even when the patients themselves acknowledge that they are much more comfortable in the open air. The older one is (in mind) the more fixed is the catching cold delusion, and the more hopeless the outlook for complete or prompt recovery from acute respiratory infections. Then, too, with advancing age it becomes increasingly difficult to keep warm, for the metabolism, the vital fire, is slowed. Of course the body warmth is not determined or appreciably influenced by the atmospheric temperature round about, but grandpa believes a hot fire and a superfluity of clothing will solve his problem, and so he coddles to beat the band. The more he coddles the slower does his metabolism become. And the slower the metabolism, the more grandpa desires to coddle. So there you are, just chasing your tail, but never getting anywhere. Most of our politician-health-officers are in a similar predicament, urging the simple public to "secure plenty of fresh air," but "avoid drafts and exposure." I say it is no wonder grandpa has such a fine time coughing. The wonder is that one out of each ten of us actually attains the hoary age of seventy.

COMPOSITE MOVIES SUGGESTION PROVES PUZZLE

WE WONDER sometimes what a composite picture of what the many American movie fans call the best would look like if flashed on the screen.

For some reason or other we have a sneaking suspicion that it would be the epitome of American life as it is, and not as it is imagined to be. You know there are a lot of things in life that look more unreal than the most romantic fiction when once they have been placed in type and printed on paper, to say nothing of being filmed and projected on a movie screen.

The point is that some great author somewhere has said that to appreciate a piece of literature, a drama or a painting and the movie may be included, it should have something in common with the reader or on-looker.

Unconsciously the movie fan finds something flashed on the screen that pulls on a responsive chord somewhere down his spiritual being; a reproduction of some emotion, some bit of feeling that he has at one time or other experienced. He doesn't believe it. It seems strange and unreal to him, yet it is the true thing because we can appreciate things only by comparison or contrast. Contact with other things us the ability to appreciate new things, for we are then given an opportunity to say, "A is like B, only better."

And so it is with the photoplay. The composite favorite would be that picture which has wrapped up in it the most commonplace, the most realistic, yet the most unrecognizable emotions man experiences.

MOVIE NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT SENTIMENT

THE popularity of the love theme in movies is due solely to the popularity of the emotion of love among the movie goers. The old overworked adage "everyone loves a lover" is true because it can't be otherwise. Love is a temporary emotion, like all the rest of man's emotions, but it is one that is experienced in every phase of life. It is experienced in so many phases and so often that it becomes one of the predominant features of all times. It is a motivating factor in life and it is a force that brings about the little incidents between men that make up what is so popularly called "real life."

A corollary from the above would

APPEAL OF LOVE STRONG IN PICTURES

WE have the love element in the movies demonstrated in every picture produced. Right in Lima there are few people who would not enjoy any of the pictures being exhibited here this week. They carry the over present appeal of love.

Even in "Up in Mary's Attic," the love theme holds sway. Of course the picture depends much upon its scenic effects it's appeal to the senses. Nevertheless, the love element is there. The two things combined have led the people to ask the management of the Lyric to hold the picture another day.

Who could imagine Dorothy Dalton playing in a picture without the love element being present. Miss Dalton is the type of woman who is made to be loved. She is a type over which men will fight so we have her playing at the Faurot in "The Idol of the North," and the love element predominates.

Even Tom Mix at the Sigma can't get along without a little bit of love, and there, too, we find the "Big Town Round-up," featured by a strain that is love pure and simple.

SCREEN GOSSIP

Georges Carpentier, the defeated aspirant for the world's heavyweight boxing title, smiled again for the movies a short time ago when he left the U. S. for his home in France. It may have been a mere news picture for which he smiled, but there was something in that picture that made one feel sorry for Georges. We can't exactly figure out whether it was because he was leaving the U. S. or whether he was sorry he wasn't taking the title with him, but the smile did not look forced.

And while we are speaking about the defeated, take a slant at the victor. Jack Dempsey is preparing for action in a new fifteen reel serial, "The Scarlet Rider."

Anita Stewart is going to help the family. She is planning to back a series of pictures in which her brother, George, will be starred. He played last with Alice Lake in "Over the Wire."

Mildred Moore, promising young ingenue, has decided to give up the footlights for the screen. She will be given the part of the pretty little school marm in "School Days," which William Nigh is going to make for Warner Bros.

BILL FOR "MUGGING" BANDITS PRESENTED

An echo of the round-up of the McGinn-Townsend gang was heard in City Hall Thursday when a bill contracted by the department was presented to Auditor David L. Rupert for payment. The item for $7.50 was paid to Murard & Son for services in "photographing the bandits captured."

The bill was among a huge stack of statements which accumulated in the safety department during June, after the resignation of Fred H. Fisher and before the appointment of C. M. Hendershott as safety director.

MOVIE SCERETS ARE REVEALED

Q.—Why do many movie actors change their names for screen work?

A.—Many movie actors change their names because of family objections but most of them make the change because their real names are either too commonplace, too long or too hard to pronounce. Short, easily remembered names are best in the movies and are much easier to display in electric light and in big type.

Q.—Where was Bryant Washburn born, how old is he and where does he live?

A.—Washburn was born in Chicago in 1889. He has been in the movies since the early Essanay days. He lives at 7065 Hawthorne Ave., Hollywood, Cal.

Q.—What famous film comedian formerly wore a black moustache, tight trousers, a funny hat and slopppy shoes?

A.—This was the makeup Harold Lloyd used in his famous "Lonesome Luke" comedies. When he dropped all of his makeup for ordinary clothes and a ten cent pair of horn rimmed spectacles he jumped into instant fame and an income said to be a million dollars a year.

Q.—What is Alma Gerber's real name?

A.—When Alma went into the movies she discarded her real name of Peggy Ralph entirely.

Q.—Who is Mrs. Luther Reed.

A.—She is Naomi Childers who was married early in June but succeeded in keeping her romance somewhat of a secret. Her husband is the author of a number of stage and screen plays.

FOOLISH WIFE

Woman Playing With Fire, But Doesn't Know It

"Anxious" Seeks to Hurry Friend in Marriage

I HAVE been married very long and as my husband works nights I stay with my sister. I love my husband, of course, but I get very lonely as he is away at nights and is never able to take me any place. Recently I met a young man, who is very nice and friendly and has invited me to go out several times. I have accepted his invitations and see no harm in it. I do not want to say anything to my husband, however. If he should happen to hear in some way about it, how could I explain?

MRS. O. CERTAINLY, if you are old enough and sensible enough to be married, you are old enough and wise enough to know that you should not accept attentions and invitations from any man other than your husband. You may not have been in the wrong or you would not hesitate in telling your husband.

No doubt your husband will hear of this in a short time. You have no means by which you can ward off gossip. Remember it will be much harder to explain the situation to your husband if some neighbor or friend happens to be the first to acquaint him with your acceptance of the attentions of this man. The thing for you to do is to tell him about this. Don't risk letting him hear it from someone else. He may overlook it if he has the assurance that it will never happen again. Your pride and self-respect should restrain you from cheapening yourself by receiving attentions which you have no right to accept and which a truly honorable man would not offer.

You need not lack for suitable diversion. When your husband is away, go out with members of your family and with your women friends. If you care for your husband as you say you do, this man's company would not be essential to your happiness.

Dear Miss Smart: Is it proper for me to call my fiancé's mother, "mother"?

ENGAGED It would be in much better taste for you to wait until after your marriage.

Members of the Congregational church enjoyed a picnic at the City Park, Wednesday evening.

Miss Beira Brill, W. High-st., is home from a several weeks' stay in Indiana.

Miss Ruth Bradford, Arch-ave., has as her house guests for the next few weeks her cousins, Misses Dorothy and Glenna Morris, Dayton.

J. I. Klingler, W. R. Daniels, M. M. Keltner and Oscar Harpster are home from Cedar Point where they attended the 43rd annual convention of the Ohio State Pharmacopoeia.

riage before you address your fiancé's mother in this way. Do it then only at her suggestion.

Dear Miss Smart: I have been going with a young man for some time. He is very nice to me and takes me out frequently and says he cares deeply for my friendship. He has never hinted or suggested marriage, however. How can I find out if he cares for me?

ANXIOUS If the young man cares for you he will tell you in due time. Until then, let the friendship progress naturally. If you should attempt to hasten a declaration from this man, you might defeat your purpose and break off the friendship entirely.

FIXERS AND PLAYERS FLEECE, BURNS AVERS

Nobody "Cleaned Up" In World's Series Deals, He Says

CHICAGO — Unshaken by the furious storm of opinion that greeted him Wednesday when he finished his amazing story of graft in connection with the sale of the 1934 World Series, Bill Burns, fisherman, former big leaguer, and sports boss for the Cubs, smiled coolly at the attorneys for the league as he stepped from the witness stand at the close of his testimony.

During the day he had completed one of the most startling and dramatic testimonies in the history of the sport.

He had told the world that he had been the victim of a

MUTT AND JEFF—THIS OLD BIRD WON'T DO MUCH SIGHTSEEING—

By BUD FISHER

SHORT SHAVINGS

Mrs. Youngbridge thought the apples the farmer had brought her were rather dirty, but he explained that this was because they had fallen off the tree onto the ground—in short, they were windfalls—so she bought them.

A week later she called the farmer's wife up on the telephone. "I ordered the best cucumbers for pickling," she said sharply, "and you've sent me windfalls."

"Sent what?" gasped the farmer's wife.

"Windfall cucumbers! I can tell; you needn't think I can't. There's dirt on them."

Two negro soldiers who were returning from Europe at the close of the war were discussing what they would do when they returned to Richmond, Va.

"What are you going to do, Eh jah?" asked one.

"Well, Alexander," said the other as he looked dreamily across the steamer's rail at the horizon beyond, "when I get back to Richmond I'm going to put on white shoes, white pants, a white coat, an' a white tie, an' I'm going to walk down a street wit white folks. What are you going to do, Alexander?"

"Hub!" came the reply. "I'm going to put on black shoes, black pants, a black coat, an' a black tie, and I'm going to walk down the street, too—behin' yo' hearse!"

Rufus Moran, Elkheart restaurant man, is named as defendant in a suit for damages filed by Mabel Adams, dressmaker. Moran, it is alleged, struck the Adams woman on the nose with his fist. Moran declared in defense that he mistook the woman for his wife.

HYMEN CASCLES, of Baltimore, N. Y., who says Phosphated Iron saved him from another nervous break-down.

"Yes, I am free from nervousness and in good health for the first time in twelve years, and you can judge from that how strong I am for Phosphated Iron," said Mr. Hymen Cascles of Baltimore, N. Y.

"No one knows the suffering I had to stand up under. It would just get the best of me so that I had to come in off the road for weeks at a time."

Since my youth I have been subject to nervous attacks, headaches and indigestion which completely undermined my health and I became so run down I could not sleep, could not eat, and life did not seem worth living.

Thanks to Phosphated Iron, I am now back in bettering trim, and feel like a boy again; nerves like steel, digestion fine, I sleep like a baby, and enjoy everything I eat.

I have gained twenty-eight pounds and am still putting on weight. I wish I could insure every sick, nervous, run-down man or woman to this Phosphated Iron. After all it has done for me, I know it would help them.

Always a friend on this Phosphated Iron in capsules. For a free trial, or information, send a label from anywhere.

Your Dollar Here Brings Genuine Service

Why? Your dollar in a J. C. PENNEY COMPANY store is not paying for—

- Overhead expense on questionable reserve stock that is waiting to be "marked down."
- Deliveries, expensive or inexpensive.
- Doubtful accounts or uncertain collections.
- It is not being held by the merchant in order to give the "Cream" to "Credit customers" and let You, a Cash Customer, take the "leavings" in advertised "Sales."

It is the people's confidence in this policy of the J. C. PENNEY COMPANY that keeps 312 stores in busy operation every business day of the year and it is the same confidence that now demands a greater expansion with a constantly improving service.
